

I would request that the FCC hold any approval for Broadband over Power line at this time. The interference to the HF frequencies used by Amateur Radio could seriously endanger the use of those frequencies during Local or National Emergencies. This possible interference needs to be observed and reviewed prior to any approval by the FCC. Thank you